Note: All Natura 2000 and Emerald sites in the area of Polesia are displayed as “International Protected Areas” on the website maps. In addition, this layer on “Threats” subpage includes all protected areas in the river basins draining into the rivers of the proposed E40 waterway. The route of the E40 waterway shown here displays the preferred variant III of the 2015 feasibility study. More information on savepolesia.org.
